

Web Resources Tip Sheet

CMS.gov is the official stakeholder website for the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS). The content is used primarily by providers, partners, and researchers. You can use the website to

- Access the National Training Program \(NTP\) resources
- Get Medicare Learning Network® \(MLN\) resources
- Research issues using CMS regulations and guidance
- Find details about what Medicare covers
- Search the Data Navigator to locate specific types of information (e.g., data files, publications, statistical reports, etc.)
- Learn about the Innovation Center which supports the development and testing of innovative health care payment and service delivery models

Medicare.gov is the official source for Medicare information, primarily for people with Medicare and their caregivers. You can use the website to

- Find health and drug plans
- Find doctors, hospitals and suppliers
- Read, print, or order free Medicare publications
- Sign up for MyMedicare.gov

Medicaid.gov is operated by CMS and is primarily a resource for states. The site has information about eligibility, enrollment, and funding. You can use the website to

- Access the State Resource Center
- Comment or view pending, current, and concluded demonstrations and waivers
- Read Federal policy guidance

Marketplace.cms.gov is the official Marketplace information source for assisters and outreach partners to get information about assister programs and tools to help existing and new Health Insurance Marketplace consumers. You can use the website to get

- Applications, forms and notices
- Technical assistance resources
- Outreach and educational materials

HealthCare.gov is the website for the federal Health Insurance Marketplace. This site will help consumers find the health insurance best suited for their needs—private and public programs. You can use the website to

- Apply for and enroll in health insurance plans, Medicaid or the Children’s Health Insurance Program
- Re-enroll, change, or cancel plan options
- Get answers to Marketplace questions

InsureKidsNow.gov, operated by CMS, is a website that helps families find free or low-cost health and dental coverage for kids and teens through the Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP). You can use the website to

- Find coverage
- Get outreach tools
- Subscribe to the Campaign Notes eNewsletter

Socialsecurity.gov is the official website of the U.S. Social Security Administration (SSA). You can use the website to

- Apply for benefits, like retirement, Medicare, Extra Help, and disability
- Order a replacement Medicare card
- Research issues using SSA’s online manuals

Regulations.gov is the source for U.S. government regulations from nearly 300 Federal agencies, including CMS. This site includes Final Rules and Regulatory Agendas that list regulations each agency plans to issue. You can use the website to review and submit comments on Proposed Rules.

eCFR.gov is the Electronic Code of Federal Regulations (e-CFR). This is where you’ll find the most up-to-date Medicare information (Medicare (Public Health) is Title 42). You can use the website to find regulations after Final Rules are implemented.

More detailed resources information is available in Module 08: CMS Program Resources.